Dear Friends,

Blessing In Indianapolis

Since we became missionaries more than 15 years ago, we have often seen God do the unusual. Sometimes He does it to humble us and to remind us of His wonderful love. We were recently passing through Indianapolis, and had no particular place to be on Sunday morning. I remembered that there was a church nearby that we had visited while on deputation 14 years ago, and for some reason (which only God knows) we were still sending them a regular prayer letter. As we went into the service, the pastor called us by name (having seen our prayer letters over the years) and within a few minutes invited me to preach. Afterwards, over a good Baptist meal, he told us that they had some available missions support money, and he thought that we would fit the criteria for monthly support. Now, what if I had removed them from the mailing list 12 years ago, or 8, or 4, or what if I had not remembered them, or...?! Why did we make those decisions every time I reviewed the mailing list? It is because God is so good to our family, and to yours. Thanks, Cornerstone Baptist Church and Pastor Mitchell, for being God's channel of blessing and instruction to us, and thanks again for adding us to your missionary family.

Blessing In Annapolis

As we walked out of church last Wednesday, I was carrying the case with our video projector and equipment when the handle broke and it fell to the ground. Nothing appeared to be hurt, so I just picked it up and continued to the van. When I got under the streetlight, I could see that a bracket was missing from the case. I went back to the grass, and in the dark we looked for 10 minutes for that bracket, but it wasn't there. We went on to the restaurant, and then started back to our home 1½ hours away. About 30 minutes later, when I reached in my pocket to pay for gas, guess what was there -- the bracket. How it got from the case to my pocket I do not know, but "Thanks again, Lord, for your bountiful blessings". The equipment is all ok, the case is fixed, and the Van Buren St. Baptist Church will partner with us in the near future to reach Kenya.

Blessing In Thika

As you read this letter, we want you to know we are HOME in KENYA. The tax issue is still not totally resolved, but by faith we have returned to Kenya. Continue to pray for this issue.

For souls in Kenya,
