Dear Friends,

TOBIAS BECOMES PERSONALLY INVOLVED

Things continue to progress back home in Kenya. I have received news that Tobias Odhiambo, a deacon in the Thika church, has decided to serve the Lord in full time ministry. We had a need for someone to help out the Bible Baptist Church in Muranga (this church has been without a full time pastor for nearly a year) and Tobias has moved his family there and begun to work for the Lord. Pray for him that God will bless his efforts, his family, and the Bible Baptist Church. Also, we thank God that the electric has been connected. (We still need $500 to finalize the bill.)

I SURE AM GLAD I ONLY HAVE 2 DAUGHTERS!

We had a great time in Muskogee, Oklahoma at our daughter Martha's wedding. We are grateful to Zac's family and the great folks at Temple Baptist Church for not only helping the couple to get the job done, but also for welcoming us so graciously. The wedding went off without any major problems, and I got 4 more cows as dowry at the reception.

Please pray for Zac and Martha as they begin their life together, and continue to take the steps God has for them as they prepare for full time service after graduation. Also, thanks for praying for Donna and I during this time. We are glad the girls are happily married, and grateful that we were able to have a part in their special days.
